EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given on page 14 of the remarks attached to the amendment of December 2, 2004:

(a) replace the title with the following "METHOD AND APPARATUS FOR USING XML FOR BOTH A PROTOCOL LAYER AND APPLICATION LAYER".

(b) In the Abstract, on line 6, "." should replace ".."

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

(a) The examiner appreciates the applicant's response to the Request for Information in the previous Office action. Every point has been addressed.

(b) With regard to applicant's comments on page 18 of the remarks attached to the amendment of December 2, 2004, the examiner does not agree. When claims containing allowable subject matter depend from an independent claim that is fully taught by a prior art reference, it is entirely proper and, in fact, necessary to object to those dependent claims. Note MPEP 608.01(n)(V.)

(c) Each of the independent claims has been amended to include the allowable subject matter indicated by the examiner in the previous Office action.

The following is further noted -- A series of singular dependent claims is permissible in which a dependent claim refers to a preceding claim which, in turn, refers to another preceding claim. Because the original claim dependencies were so convoluted, making it difficult to trace the basis for limitations of the dependent claims, the claims have been properly numbered herewith. Note MPEP 608.01(n)(IV.)

A claim which depends from a dependent claim should not be separated by any claim which does not also depend from said dependent claim. It should be kept in mind that a dependent claim may refer to any preceding independent claim. In general, applicant's sequence will not be changed. See MPEP § 608.01(n).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
